FUQUAY SPRINGS ACADEMY

NATURE AND OBJECT

The School is maintained by public funds together with a special tax fund voted by the community, but the Board of Managers have arranged to admit outside pupils upon the payment of a tuition fee of from one dollar to three and one half dollars per month, according to grade entered. Tuition must be paid in advance or satisfactorily arranged with the Board. There will be a graded course of study from the primary department leading up to and including preparation for college.

LOCATION

This School is located at the noted Fuquay Springs, whose mineral waters have been famous for half a century. The School may be reached by rail over the Raleigh and Southport Railway or the Durham and Southern Railway.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The building is a new one, just completed, well located, lighted and heated, and is furnished with modern school furniture. This School won the prize offered by the Ladies Betterment Association to the school making the greatest improvement during the year.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INFLUENCE

The community is quiet and free from those vices found in larger places. There are four churches in the village, viz.: M. E. Church, South, Christian, Free Will Baptist and Missionery Baptist. All these churches maintain sunday schools.
